ENABLE PEACE TO FLOW ON EARTH

PEACE & HARMONY FOR ONE & ALL

Welcome here kind stranger....

And enter the Realms of the Otherworld. The Mystical Realm, The Sacred Realm, the Faerie Realm; AVALON RISING! The rising of true peace and harmony on Planet Earth, with the waking up of NEW ALBION. Let us all start to perceive the wonders of the world around us and the truth and wisdom within. Raise our hearts for the higher good as the Grail is returned to the Dragon Heart of Britain. Let us link with the kin of all planetary cultures as the unfoldment of the love vibration echoes through harmonic global music, dance, song, healing and art. This Aquarian surge will pulsate around our planet as the energy of 'Arthur', the once and always true-born King - The Source of All, who gives the directives of life through divine ratio - has returned to the land through humanity, releasing Excalibur, the Sword of Truth from The Grail of Glastonbury.

This broadsheet carries encoded enlightenment for which we all give thanks for contributions large and small (KeepWriting!) Network the Great Awakening of the New Age and Reverse the 'One-Ring'! May Avalon Rising prove to be of assistance to you in understanding the amazing days and nights in which we live.

Give thanks to the arrival of the 'New Human' on Summer Solstice 2005AD, as King Arthur, accompanied by Queen Guinivere (Sun & Moon) return in harmony to the Sacred Land of Britain at the turning of the Ages, to enable peace to flow through Avalon for the highest good of all.

Inlakesh.

Two Fishes swimming upon an ancient Holy sea just off the Isle Of Avalon where lie the towns of Street & Glastonbury...
The lamb looks over his shoulder as he rests upon Walton Hill accompanied by a horned Bull with a navel monument where should be Arthur's arrow quill...
The Argo sails' with it's cargo of a bruised Humanity cradling and carrying him towards his destiny...
The Lion Guards over the Twin

The Earth Goddess weaves her magic over all within her dominion...
From upon the wings of a Dove

The Phoenix flies high from his cinnamon fire as

Earth Healing through Pilgrimage... Shaun Kirwan

Why are so many of us wandering the planet in search of 'who knows what?' Or are we in fact, part of a great cosmic play in which we follow our hearts & connect with the places we journey to? Are we instruments by which Gaia heals herself, then consequently us too?

Most people have had the experience of ending up at certain places in nature without knowing exactly why they are there. If this has happened to you, it is likely that Gaia has called you to be a pilgrim.

Just like Joseph Of Arimathea, who was called to bring the teachings of Jesus and the consciousness of the Aquarian Age to Avalon. He Planted his staff and linked Jerusalem with Glastonbury. Simple acts are perhaps the most powerful for a pilgrim. If carried out with a good heart, the effects can be world changing!

Since we all have planetary consciousness in our being, is it any wonder that you may get picked on to perform a mission for Gaia, that she can't quite manage herself? (Like scratching an awkward spot). We can all do this consciously if we are open to it.

You don't have to be a Medium or Psychic, just the willingness to be of service to the planet. So, the next time you get a wacky feeling to go somewhere, just tune in to it and see where it is from, and if there is anything or anyone you need to bring with you. If your friends get the same notion you may well be in for an adventure.....

144,000 Souls Required...by madan Mohan das

The beating heart of any culture is heard and felt through the vibrancy of its music scene. The full power to achieve perfect harmony and rapidly restore the true human spirit of love, mutual respect and unity in diversity now lies decisively in the hands of the music-makers and music-lovers.

The Rainbow Bridge Project is working with numerous musicians, artists, event organizers and music lovers everywhere to help bring about a radical transformation in worldwide consciousness. We are distributing 144,000 spiritually-surcharged free CDs as our contribution to dissipating darkness and creating a planet-wide portal of natural harmonic resonance, flooding hearts, homes and minds with unprecedented waves of light, love and soothingly peaceful sound vibrations.

As we are now rapidly progressing towards critical mass – reaching 18,000 spiritually conscious brothers and sisters for each G8 member country – the base iron of ignorance, violence and deception is slowly but surely transforming into the pure gold of fully-enlightened conscious awareness. And simply by holding the vision of light and love triumphing over darkness and fear, each and every one of us is assured of playing a big part in helping to make it happen. Positive visualisation motivated by pure, unselfish love is the very highest power we have at our disposal.

It is written in the most ancient of holy scriptures, the Vedas, that when governments become burdensome and corrupt, they must be removed by force. The petty distractions of party politics hold no solutions. The whole system has proven itself to be a burden to every living being on the planet, endangering our well-being, our future lives and the lives of our children and all future generations more and more as every day passes. The time has come for us all to fully reclaim the divine birthright of our personal sovereignty as individual souls. The greatest force for us to right wrongs and return honesty, peace and justice to the world lies within the very fabric of our being.

We are made of the same stuff as God – pure love – and love is the only way ahead, for the absolute optimum benefit of everyone. The meek are already reclaiming the rightful inheritance of our sacred Mother Earth, as the ultimate “finishing school” on our unique journeys towards individual spiritual perfection. If we are not now doing what we do with the utmost love, then we must seriously ask ourselves why we are doing it at all. Perfect harmony can only be achieved through love. Not crass, wishy-washy sentimentality, but continuous practical application of the highest principle and the very greatest power available in unlimited abundance to each and every one of us.

This is no time for preaching, or fighting. Simply to engage full-time in positive affirmation of our true identities as eternal spirit souls, to join hands and hearts and sing and dance together in joyous celebration is quite sufficient to dispel all darkness – personal and planetary – and carry us all the way back to our true home, where we will know everlasting peace and unending loving happiness.

Calling 144,000 Souls...

TO PARTICIPATE IN A 100-DAY FESTIVAL OF HARMONIC RESONANCE

FRIDAY 8th JULY to SUNDAY 16th OCTOBER 2005

In the 144,000 minutes (1 day = 1440 minutes) you can help to dissipate darkness and create a world wide portal of natural harmonic resonance, simply by visualising light, love and peace illuminating the entire planetary grid in all directions. In the year 2005 the world population stands at six billion. 6,000,000,000 divided by 41,666.666 = 144,000. 144,000 souls represent 0.0024% of the total human population(1 in 41,666).

The biblical concept of 144,000 souls attaining salvation finds its highest expression when a critical mass of 144,000 people - comprising any members of the world population in any place at any time - take action to transform personal and global consciousness by simultaneously visualising light, love and peace illuminating the entire planetary grid in all directions. A worldwide portal of natural harmonic resonance is thus created, dispelling darkness and offering every soul on the planet an unprecedented opportunity to ascend into the highest state of spiritual perfection in the crucial years leading up to 2012. And that's just the first 100-day festival...

Day out of Time 25th July 2005

Blue Crystal Night

Wizardsing

by Paradox

What is a Wizard?

A Wizard is one with the One

A Wizard is one who knows revolution doesn't come through the barrel of a gun

A Wizard and the earth are one, they both revolve around the sun

And they're both evolving into one
And now that the Wizard's time has come Babylon have to run

So have no fear my son

Wizards get the job done... And to all of the Goddesses beautiful daughters, whether at great distance or close quarters

Wizards are loyal to the flow of your universal waters

Wizards are the ones that run with the horses

Wizards command Cosmic forces, by doing what the Goddesses taught us

Unconditionally loving, cos that's what The Source is

Of course it is, love is the source of all voices from the deep blue sea where the Orcas live to the heights of the mountainous Caucasus

So Wizards don't build fortresses and we can't be held by locks or mortices

We navigate parallel universes by singing their choruses

A Wizard isn't what you thought it is A Time Lord, that's what a Wizard is

Just like Dr. Who with his Tardis,

Wizards are time traveling galactic tourists

Walking talking tomorrow people living time's crystalline stories

Mysterious jokers and long shot dark horses

The illuminating nemesis of all dark forces

But Wizards don't live for platitudes,

Wizards have an attitude of gratitude

Dancing to the telepathic tune that the earth's crystal core sings

Having a fabulous mythological fling, with the lady of the solar ring

Liberating her soul from the Lords of the Bling Bling

That's how Wizards spend their time,

Sharing it with the earth Goddess and experiencing the Divine

Living in natural 13 moon time, with natural rhythm and natural rhyme

Letting go of possession obsession,

transcending yours and mine

Evolving into the sublime united higher mind

You can tell a Wizard by the way we shine

Take the unconditioned perspective of a baby and the discernment of an experienced adult

Add a codon of Cosmic Memory, and a Wizard is the result!

Real life X-men with evolving DNA capability

Living Time as Art Wizards transcend space through telepathy

Cos thought has infinite velocity

Faster than the speed of light it spirals into infinity

Radially and Holographically, Instantaneously and Magically, manifesting perfectly

As the physical world we see with our physical eyes

Cos is the meta-physical that makes the physical arise

Just like on the night the whole world

looks to the skies

And is awakened at last, by the Wizards surprise

So when the Rainbow Bridge

appears around the earth

And the world is recreated anew

As the mighty Timeship Earth,

sailed by its Cosmic Wizard crew

Tell me, will one of those Wizards be you?

Whats So Special About 2012?

"So the 13-baktun cycle of the Long Count calendar of the Maya terminates on Winter Solstice 2012. So what? Another pseudo-apocalypse?"

The Maya inherited their basic calendrical information from the Olmecs who developed the Long Count between the 500 and 200 BC. But as a matter of fact, there are several other independent sources that also mark 2012 as a conspicuous time.

- In the 1920s, a Seneca medicine man called Moses Shongo predicted that there would be a 25-year Earth purification period leading up to 2012.

- In the 1950s, a Native American called Reuben Silverbird had an out-of-body experience in which he predicted a rebirth experience in 2012.

- In the 1970s, the Chinese oracle, the I Ching was found by Terence McKenna to encode a fractal time wave that terminates late in 2012.

- In the 1980s, the Paqos, who are priests of the Q'ero tribe living in the Andes in Peru, announced that their Pachakuti formula – the overturning of spacetime – would start in 1990 and last 22 years. Thus 2012 would bring the start of a Golden Age called Taripay Pacha, when the upper world, lower world and everyday world will unite.

All these other sources knew nothing of the Maya Long Count, so what can it all mean? "Mystical experiences" such as:

- hypnotic progression,
- out-of body experiences,
- near-death experiences,
- lucid dreams,
- remote viewing,
- alien abduction,
- meditative trance states...

All these have produced a certainty in some experiencers that 2012 is a time of special significance. Recent research by Dr. Rick Strassman suggests that all these experiences are caused by a very similar neuro-chemical to that which the Maya shamans ingested to go into trance. The trance and altered states seem to give access to a global megamind - the developing consciousness of the Earth. Earth's population is reaching a critical number, at which the components of the system start to work together like human neurons in a global brain. The Long Count calendar that the Olmec and Maya used has now been shown to track a cycle known as Precession, and the 13-baktun cycle ends when the winter solstice sun conjuncts the galactic equator, close to galactic centre. This is known as Galactic Alignment.

The 13-baktun cycle is one eighth of Earth's "variation of axis tilt" cycle and the baktun itself is the same as the rotational period of Earth's core. This suggests a possibility of geomagnetic reversal.

Other scientists have recently reported that human biochemistry and psychic ability is affected by Earth's orientation to the stars, and galactic centre in particular.

So this Galactic Alignment process could indicate a time-window that will see the first examples of an altered humanity – some think that we can expect an increased telepathic ability, as seems to be the case with the "psychic children". If a geomagnetic reversal is involved, or an electro-magnetic pulse wave, there is a possibility that the functioning of electronic devices would be compromised, and some say that humans would lose their memory, thus ending all conflict, since the reason for fighting would be forgotten.

Others think that it could trigger mass out-of-body experiences or the rising of Kundalini – the fire serpent of Hindu lore that lies dormant at the base of the spine, and can, under special circumstances, rise up the spine to the brain, when ego is annihilated and enlightenment is achieved. This interpretation is reinforced by the recently published lost Aztec codex, The Pyramid of Fire, (see John Major Jenkins' recent book of this name), in which the feathered serpent god, Quetzalcoatl-Kukulcan is revealed to be the same as Kundalini, and is directly connected with 2012.

There have been many speculations and theories about what 2012 may bring, and these can be generally grouped into the subheadings of catastrophic or ecstatic.

All these theories are analysed in the forthcoming book:

Beyond 2012: Catastrophe or Ecstasy, which is out now.
